

We'll Buy Your Used Racking

At J&J, we buy and sell all major brands of pre-owned pallet racking. If you are planning to upgrade, move or close your facility J&J would like to discuss the used or surplus racking you have for sale.

But Not Just Racking...

Pallet racking is not all we're ready to buy from you. At J&J, we can also purchase your wire decking, conveyors, mezzanines - and practically all types of material handling equipment you might have on hand. Talk to one of our experienced and knowledgeable sales managers to discuss your specific needs and equipment list. We'll schedule an appointment for inspection and deliver you a quick, competitive quote.

Covered from Door to Floor

The J&J team is equipped and experienced in covering any material handling needs you may have, such as:
